ALUATION 25X1 PLACE OSTAINED 25X1 ALUATION 25X1 PLACE OSTAINED 25X1 ATE OF CONTENT 25X1 DATE PREPARED 16 July 1951 EFFERENCES 25X1 GES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 1990) EMARKS 5 EMARKS 6 EMARKS 6 EMARKS 6 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 1990) EMARKS 7 EMARKS 7 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 1990) EMARKS 7 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 1990) EMARKS 7 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 1990) EMARKS 7 EMARKS 7 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 1990) EMARKS 7 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 1990) EMARKS 7 EMARKS 7 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 1990) EMARKS 7 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 1990) EMARKS 7 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 1990) EMARKS 7 EMAR		CHASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL Approved For Release 2006/03/01 : CIA-RDP82-00457R008200730001-4 Germany (Sovie: Zone)
ALUATION 25X1 PLACE OSTAINED 25X1 PLACE OSTAINED 25X1 THE OF CONTENT THE OBTAINED 25X1 PLACE OSTAINED 25X1 DATE PREPARED 16. July 1963 FERENCES 25X1 GES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. A TWFE) 5 MARKS 5 ST		77
ATE OF CONTENT ATE OF CONTENT ATE OF CONTENT AGES	JPIC	Allx.
EFERENCES		ONPACE OBTAINED
AGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. a 1991)		CONTENT.
REMARKS 2. ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 2. Between 1 and 12 June 1951, about 9 to 17 kig-15s were seen at Dessau airfield. The red number 311 was seen on one plane. There was intensive flying. On 8 June, German farmers were nowing grass on the landing fields. 2. Between 5:30 and 8:30 p.m. on 12 June, two biplanes, two single-engine low-wing monoplanes, one swept-back jet fighter, and one Type-26 jet fighter were parked at the field. One biplane took off from the field about 7 p.m. The visibility was poor. At nightfall, a truck with a trailer moved toward the runway, A lundinous landing cross was unloaded from the trailer by three moldiers. The cross was not up mext to the runway. 3. Petween 5 and 6:30 p.m. on 13 June, 12 kig-15s were parked on the castern edge of the field and two lid-15s were seen next to the flight control station. Two single-engine low-wing monoplanes and one biplane took off from the field at 530 p.m. The sky was slightly cloudy. Passenger car truck passed through the entrance of the field. 4. On 16 June, eight lid-15s were parked on the castern edge of the field, two lid-15s were parked on the castern edge of the field, two lid-15s were parked north of the runway. Ecteson hill a.m. and hill p.m., there was no flying. Visibility was noderate and the cloud base was low-flying. Visibility was roberate and the cloud base was low-flying. Visibility was roberate and the cloud base was low-flying. Visibility was roberate and the cloud base was low-flying. Visibility was roberate and the cloud base was low-flying. Visibility was roberate and the cloud base was low-flying. There were intervals of about five minutes between relations. The personnel strength of the field was apparently reduced since little activity was seen in house at trucks There were intervals of about five minutes between relations. The personnel strength of the field was apparently reduced since little activity was seen in house at 655 a.m. on 12 June, The convey came from the direction of "Geslan. Some vehicles to 655 a.m. on	ATE OB
Between 1 and 12 June 1951, about 9 to 17 MiG-15s were seen at Descau airfield. The red number 311 was seen on one plane. There was intensive flying. On 8 June, German fararers were making greas on the landing field. 2. Between 5:30 and 8:30 p.m. on 12 June, two biplanes, two single-engine low-wing monoplanes, one swept-back jet fighter, and one Type-26 jet fighter were parked at the field are biplane took off from the field about 7 p.m. The visibility was poor. At mightfall, a truck with a trailer moved toward the runway. A luminous landing cross was unloaded from the trailer by three coldiers. The cross was set up next to the runway. 3. Petween 5 and 6:30 p.m. on 13 June, 12 HiG-15s were parked on the castern edge of the field and two HiG-15s were seen next to the flight control station. Two single-engine low-wing monoplanes and one biplane took off from the field at 5:30 p.m. The sky was alightly cloudy. Passenger car hunck field. 4. On 16 June, eight HiG-15s were parked on the castern edge of the field, two High see through the entrance of the field. 5. Ca 16 June, eight HiG-15s were parked on the castern edge of the field, two High were seen near the flight control, and two single-engine aircraft and four biplanes were parked north of the runway. Extreen hills a.m. and hill p.u., there was no flying. Visibility was nederate and the cloud base use low. 5. Petween 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. on 12 June, the airfield was still occupied by apparently the same planes. There was no flying, "he scarchlight near the radio installation in the northeastern section of the field was in operation for a short time. It nade about five to six rotations each lasting about six to ten seconds. There were intervals of about five minutes between rotations. The personnel. 6. An air force convoy of about 11 to 12 unter verticles, including tank truck functs between real consults. Some vehicles of 55 e.m., on 12 June. The convoy case from the direction of "Goslan Iso Some vehicles of 55 e.m., on 12 June. The convoy case from the dir
1. Between 1 and 12 June 1951, about 9 to 17 MiG-15s were seen at Descau airfield. The red number 311 was seen on one plane. There was intensive flying. On 8 June, German farmers were making grass on the landing field. 2. Between 5:30 and 8:30 p.m. on 12 June, two biplanes, two single-engine low-wing monoplanes, one swept-back jet flighter, and one Type-26 jet flighter were parked at the field. In biplane took off from the field about 7 p.m. The visibility was poor. At nightfall, a truck with a trailer for moved toward the runway. A luminous landing cross was unloaded from the trailer by three moldiers. The cross was set up next to the runway. 3. Between 5 and 6:30 p.m. on 13 June, 12 Hid-15s were parked on the castern edge of the field and two MiG-15s were seen next to the flight control station. Two single-engine low-wing monoplanes and one biplane took off from the field at 5:30 p.m. The sky was slightly cloudy. Passenger or hruck mass alightly cloudy. Passenger or hruck mass alightly cloudy. Passenger or hruck mass alightly cloudy. Passenger or hruck field, two Hid-15s were seen near the flight control, and two single-engine nineraft and four biplanes were parked north of the runway. Ectwoon hilf a.m. and hilf p.m., there was no flying. Visibility was noderate and the cloud base was low. 5. Petween 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. on 12 June, the airfield was still occupied by apparently the same planes. There was no flying, The coarchlight near the radio installation in the northeastern section of the field was in operation for a short time. It nade about five to six rotations each lasting about six to ten seconds. There were intervals of about five ninutes between rotations. The personnel strength of the field was apparently reduced since little activity was seen in the 25x1 quarters area. 6. An air force convey of about 11 to 12 meter vehicles, including tank truck frucks peeps have seen in peeps have	'AGES	2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)
1. Between 1 and 12 June 1951, about 9 to 17 MiG-15s were seen at Dessau airfield. The red number 311 was seen on one plane. There was intensive flying. On 8 June, German farmers were nawing grass on the landing field. 2. Between 5:30 and 8:30 p.m. on 12 June, two biplanes, two single-engine low-wing nonoplanes, one swept-back jet fighter, and one Type-26 jet fighter were parked at the field. One biplane took off from the field about 7 p.m. The visibility was poor. At nightfall, a truck with a trailer moved toward the runway. A luminous landing cross was unloaded from the trailer by three moldiors. The cross was set up next to the runway. 3. Between 5 and 6:30 p.m. on 13 June, 12 Mid-15s were parked on the castern edge of the field and two Mid-15s were seen next to the flight control station. Two single-engine low-wing monoplanes and one biplane took off from the field at 5:30 p.m. The stream alignity cloudy. Passenger car truck passed through the entrance of the field. 4. On 16 June, eight Mid-15s were parked on the castern edge of the field, two Mid-15s were seen mear the flight control, and two single-engine aircraft and four biplanes were parked north of the runway. Retwoon bills a.m. and hills p.m., there was no flying. Visibility was nederate and the sloud base was low. 5. Between 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. on 12 June, the carrield was still occupied by apparently the same planes. There was no flying, and as still occupied by apparently the same planes. There was no flying about five to six rotations each lasting about six to ten seconds. There were intervals of about five the minutes between rotations. In personnel, trucks and a force convoy of about 11 to 12 meter vehicles, including tank truck passes. 6. An air force convoy of about 11 to 12 meter vehicles, including tank truck peeps of the planes. The convoy case from the direction of "capillat. Some vehicles of the field was apparently reduced since little activity was seen in the 25x1 peeps of the field was apparently reduced since little activity was	IEMARKS
Between 1 and 12 June 1951, about 9 to 17 kig-15s were seen at Dessau airfield. The red number 311 was seen on one plane. There was intensive flying. On 8 June, German farmers were newing grass on the landing field. 2. Between 5:30 and 8:30 p.m. on 12 June, two biplanes, two single-engine low-wing monoplanes, one swept-back jet fighter, and one Type-26 jet fighter were parked at the field. One biplane took off from the field about 7 p.m. The visibility was poor. At nightfall, a truck with a trailer moved toward the runway. A luminous landing cross was unloaded from the trailer by three soldiers. The cross was set up next to the runway. 3. Petween 5 and 6:30 p.m. on 13 June, 12 lid-15s were parked on the eastern edge of the field and two lid-15s were seen next to the flight control station. Two single-engine low-wing monoplanes and one biplane took off from the field at 5:30 p.m. The sky was slightly cloudy. Passenger car truck, and truck passed through the entrance of the field. 4. On 16 June, eight lid-15s were parked on the castern edge of the field, two lid-15s were seen near the flight control, and two single-engine aircraft and four biplanes were parked north of the runway. Estween hill a.m. and hill path, there was no flying. Visibility was noderate and the cloud base was low. 5. Petween 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. on 12 June, the airfield was still occupied by apparently the same planes. There was no flying. In scarchlight near the radio installation in the northeastern section of the field was in operation for a short time. It made about five to six rotations each lasting about six to ten seconds. There were intervals of about five minutes between rotations. The personnel strength of the field was apparently reduced since little activity was seen in the 25X1 quarters area. 6. An air force convoy of about 11 to 12 m for vehicles, including tank truck peeps of the field was apparently reduced since little activity was seen in Dossau at 6:55 a.m. on 12 June. The convoy case from the direction of Gesslau. Some	on the completence with the production registers, made Between 1 and 12 June 1951, about 9 to 17 NiG-15s were seen at Descau airfield. The red number 311 was seen on one plane. There was intensive flying. On 8 June, German farmers were nowing grass on the landing field. 2. Between 5:30 and 8:30 p.m. on 12 June, two biplanes, two single-engine low-wing monoplanes, one swept-back jet fighter, and one Type-26 jet fighter were parked at the field. One biplane took off from the field about 7 p.m. The visibility was poor. At nightfall, a truck with a trailor moved toward the runway. A luminous landing cross was unloaded from the trailer by three soldiers. The cross was set up next to the runway. 3. Petween 5 and 6:30 p.m. on 13 June, 12 NiG-15s were parked on the eastern edge of the field and two NiG-15s were seen next to the flight control station. Two single-engine low-wing monoplanes and one biplane took off from the field at 5:30 p.m. The sky was alightly cloudy. Passenger car truck passed through the entrance of the field. 5. On 16 June, eight NiG-15s were parked on the castern edge of the field, two NiG-15s were seen near the flight control, and two single-engine aircraft and four biplanes were parked north of the runway. Notecon hill a.s. and hill p.m., there was no flying. Visibility was nederate and the cloud base was low. 5. Petween 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. on 12 June, the airfield was still occupied by apparently the same planes. There was no flying. In searchlight near the radio installation in the northeastern section of the field was in operation for a short time. It made about five to six rotations each lasting about six to ten seconds. There were intervale of about five minutes between rotations. The personnel strength of the field was apparently reduced since little activity was seen in the 25X1 quarters area. 6. An air force convoy of about 11 to 12 meter vehicles, including tank truck trucks jeeps was seen in Dossau at 6:55 a.m. on 12 June. The convoy came from the direction of Rosslau. Some vehicles	· VINCEL SCHOOLSE PROPERTY IN red number 311 was seen on one plane. There was intensive flying. On 3 June, German farmers were moving grass on the landing field. 2. Between 5:30 and 8:30 p.m. on 12 June, two biplanes, two single-engine low-wing monoplanes, one swept-back jet fighter, and one Type-26 jet fighter were parked at the field. One biplane took off from the field about 7 p.m. The visibility was poor. At nightfall, a truck with a trailer moved toward the runway. A luminous landing cross was unloaded from the trailer by three soldiers. The cross was set up next to the runway. 3. Petween 5 and 6:30 p.m. on 13 June, 12 Hid-15s were parked on the eastern edge of the field and two Hid-15s were seen next to the flight control station. Two single-engine low-wing monoplanes and one biplane took off from the field at 5:30 p.m. The slev was slightly cloudy. Passenger car truck, and tank truck
1. Between 1 and 12 June 1951, about 9 to 17 kiG-15s were seen at Descau airfield. The red number 311 was seen on one plane, There was intensive flying. On 8 June, German farmers were moving grass on the landing field. 2. Between 5:30 and 8:30 p.m. on 12 June, two biplanes, two single-engine low-wing monoplanes, one swept-back jet fighter, and one Type-26 jet fighter were parked at the field. One biplane took off from the field about 7 p.m. The visibility was poor. At nightfall, a truck with a trailer moved toward the runway. A luminous landing cross was unloaded from the trailer by three soldiers. The cross was set up next to the runway. 3. Petwen 5 and 6:30 p.m. on 13 June, 12 lid-15s were parked on the eastern edge of the field and two lid-15s were seen next to the flight control station. Two single-engine low-wing monoplanes and one biplane took off from the field at 5:30 p.m. The sky was alightly cloudy. Passenger car truck, and truck passed through the entrance of the field. 4. On 16 June, eight lid-15s were parked on the castern edge of the field, two lid-15s were seen near the flight control, and two single-engine aircraft and four biplanes were parked north of the runway. Extreme hill a.m. and hill pain, there was no flying. Visibility was noderate and the cloud base was low. 5. Petwen 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. on 12 June, the airfield was still occupied by apparently the same planes. There was no flying. In scarchlight near the radio installation in the northwastern section of the field was in operation for a short time. It made about five to six rotations each lasting about six to ten seconds. There were intervale of about five minutes between rotations. The personnel strength of the field was apparently reduced since little activity was seen in the 25X1 quarters area. 6. An air force convoy of about 11 to 12 meter vehicles, including tank truck trucks jeeps on Dessau at 6:55 a.m., on 12 June, The convoy case from the direction of Gesslau. Some vehicles red number 311 was seen on one plane. There was intensive flying. On 8 June, German farmers were newing grass on the landing field. 2. Between 5:30 and 8:30 p.m. on 12 June, two biplanes, two single-engine low-wing monoplanes, one swept-back jet fighter, and one Type-26 jet fighter were parked at the field. One biplane took off from the field about 7 p.m. The visibility was poor. At nightfall, a truck with a trailer moved toward the runway. A luminous landing cross was unloaded from the trailer by three soldiers. The cross was set up next to the runway. 3. Petween 5 and 6:30 p.m. on 13 June, 12 Hid-15s were parked on the eastern edge of the field and two Hid-15s were seen next to the flight control station. Two single-engine low-wing monoplanes and one biplane took off from the field at 5:30 p.m. The sky was slightly cloudy. Fassenger car truck and a field at 5:30 p.m. The sky was slightly cloudy. Fassenger car truck and the field, 4. On 16 June, eight Hid-15s were parked on the eastern edge of the field, two Hid-15s were seen near the flight control, and two single-engine aircraft and four biplanes were parked north of the runway. Fotween hill a.m. and hill p.m., there was no flying. Visibility was noderate and the cloud base was low. 5. Petween 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. on 13 June, the airfield was still occupied by apparently the same planes. There was no flying. The searchlight near the radio installation in the northeastern section of the field was in operation for a short time. It nade about five to six rotations each lasting about six to ten seconds. There were intervals of about five minutes between rotations. The personnel strength of the field was apparently reduced since little activity was seen in the 25X1 quarters area. 6. An air force convoy of about 11 to 12 meter vehicles, including tank truck and five trucks and another of a seen in Dossau at 6:55 a.m., on 12 June, The convoy cane from the direction of Gosslau. Some vehicles	 5X1 nonoplanes, one swept-back jet fighter, and one Type-26 jet fighter were parked at the field. One biplane took off from the field about 7 p.m. The visibility was poor. At nightfall, a truck with a trailer moved toward the runway. A luminous landing cross was unloaded from the trailer by three soldiers. The cross was set up next to the runway. 3. Retween 5 and 6:30 p.m. on 13 June, 12 HiG-15s were parked on the eastern edge of the field and two HiG-15s were seen next to the flight control station. Two single-engine low-wing monoplanes and one biplane took off from the field at 5:30 p.m. The sky was slightly cloudy. Passenger car truck, and tank truck passed through the entrance of the field. 4. On 16 June, eight HiG-15s were parked on the eastern edge of the field, two HiG-15s were seen near the flight control, and two single-engine aircraft and four biplanes were parked north of the runway. Retween h:15 a.m. and 4:45 p.m., there was no flying. Visibility was moderate and the cloud base was low. 5. Retween 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. on 12 June, the airfield was still occupied by apparently the same planes. There was no flying. The searchlight near the radio installation in the northeastern section of the field was in operation for a short time. It made about five to six rotations each lasting about six to ten seconds. There were intervals of about five minutes between rotations. The personnel strength of the field was apparently reduced since little activity was seen in the 25X1 quarters area. 6. An air force convoy of about 11 to 12 meter vehicles, including tank truck		red number 311 was seen on one plane. There was intensive flying. On 8 June, German the field and two MiG-15s were seen next to the flight control station. Two single- engine low-wing monoplanes and one biplane took off from the field at 5:30 p.m. The sky was slightly cloudy. Passenger car truck , and tank truck passed through the entrance of the field. 4. On 16 June, eight MiG-15s were parked on the eastern edge of the field, two MiG-15s were seen near the flight control, and two single-engine aircraft and four biplanes were parked north of the runway. Estween 4:15 a.m. and 4:45 p.m., there was no flying. Visibility was moderate and the cloud base was low. 5. Petween 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. on 12 June, the airfield was still occupied by apparently the same planes. There was no flying. The searchlight near the radio installation in the northeastern section of the field was in operation for a short time. It made about five to six rotations each lasting about six to ten seconds. There were intervals of about five minutes between rotations. The personnel strength of the field was apparently reduced since little activity was seen in the 25X1 quarters area. 6. An air force convoy of about 11 to 12 meter vehicles, including tank truck trucks an ambulance, and five jeeps was seen in Decsau at 6:55 a.m. on 12 June. The convoy came from the direction of roselau. Some vehicles	2.	monoplanes, one swept-back jet fighter, and one Type-26 jet fighter were parked at the field. One biplane took off from the field about 7 p.m. The visibility was poor. At nightfall, a truck with a trailer moved toward the runway. A luminous landing cross was unloaded from the trailer by three soldiers. The cross was set up next to the
4. On 16 June, eight HiG-15s were parked on the eastern edge of the field, two HiG-15s were seen near the flight control, and two single-engine aircraft and four biplanes were parked north of the runway. Fetween 4:15 a.m. and 4:45 p.m., there was no flying. Visibility was noderate and the cloud base was low. 5. Petween 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. on 12 June, the airfield was still occupied by apparently the same planes. There was no flying. The searchlight near the radio installation in the northeastern section of the field was in operation for a short time. It made about five to six rotations each lasting about six to ton seconds. There were intervals of about five minutes between rotations. The personnel strength of the field was apparently reduced since little activity was seen in the 25X1 quarters area. 6. An air force convoy of about 11 to 12 meter vehicles, including tank truck 1. trucks 1. jeeps 1. was seen in Dossau at 6:55 a.m. on 12 June. The convoy came from the direction of Dossau. Some vehicles	5X1	the field and two MiG-15s were seen next to the flight control station. Two single-engine low-wing monoplanes and one biplane took off from the field at 5:30 p.m. The sky was slightly cloudy. Passenger car truck truck apparently the same planes. There was no flying. The searchlight near the radio installation in the northeastern section of the field was in operation for a short time. It made about five to six rotations each lasting about six to ton seconds. There were intervals of about five minutes between rotations. The personnel strength of the field was apparently reduced since little activity was seen in the 25X1 quarters area. 6. An air force convoy of about 11 to 12 meter vehicles, including tank truck 1. an ambulance, and five jeeps was seen in Dessau at 6:55 a.m. on 12 June. The convoy came from the direction of Posslau. Some vehicles	4	were seen hear the flight control, and two single-engine aircraft and four biplanes were parked north of the runway. Fetween 4:15 a.m. and 4:45 p.m., there was no trucks an ambulance, and five jeeps was seen in Dossau at 6:55 a.m. on 12 June. The convoy came from the direction of Possau. Some vehicles	5.	apparently the same planes. There was no flying. The searchlight near the radio installation in the northeastern section of the field was in operation for a short time. It made about five to six rotations each lasting about six to ten seconds. There were intervals of about five minutes between rotations. The personnel strength of the field was apparently reduced since little activity was seen in the 25X1 yas seen in Dossau at 6:55 a.m. on 12 June. The convoy came from the direction of dossau. Some vehicles were occupied by pilots wearing flying suits. *		jeeps was seen in Dossau at
CLASSIFICATION CROSS AND	1 Г	The state of the s
, No. 1	·	Deciment No. No Change in Class. Deciassified Class. Changed To: TS Auth.: 10 AUG 1978 25X1

Approved For Release 2006/03/01 : CIA-RDP82-00457R008200730001-4 CONFIDENTIAL

25X1

25X1 25X1

SECRET/C SHIROLYOS OFFICIALS ONLY
Connent, The airfield is still occupied by a fighter regiment equipped with MiG-15s and some Yak-lls and PO-2s.	□ 25X
the regiment is equipped with at least 23	 25X

25X1

SECULE/SOUTHOL/US OFFICIALS ONLY

CONFIDENTIAL 3